

CONSTITUTION of the DEMOCRATIC COMMITTEE of Berks County, Pennsylvania

Preamble

We, the Democratic Committee persons of Berks County, Pennsylvania, in order to effect a more perfect party organization, provide ways and means for maintaining an active and efficient government, preserve the fundamental principles of the Democratic Party, establish justice and harmony within the organization, deter factional abuses and financial extravagance, encourage trustworthy and meritorious persons to be candidates for public office, increase the party strength and political influence, and cooperate with the Local, State and National Committees of the Democratic Party, do establish this Constitution for the Democratic Party of Berks County, Pennsylvania.

Article I

Name and Government

Section 1. Name

This organization shall be known as the Democratic Party Committee of Berks County, Pennsylvania, hereinafter sometimes called the "County Committee."

Section 2. Government

All legislative, executive and judicial functions of the Democratic Party of Berks County shall be vested in the County Committee.

Article II

Membership and Removal

Section 1. Membership

The membership of the County Committee shall consist of men and women who are legally qualified registered Democratic voters, elected as committee persons by the voters of their districts or precincts or appointed by the County Committee, the elected or appointed State Committee members from Berks County and any officer who is not an elected member of this committee. All members must be and shall have been a registered Democrat for at least two (2) years prior to running for County Committee, unless twenty-one (21) years or younger or newly registered and shall not be nor be registered in another political party nor shall have supported a candidate in a general or special election, opposed to the duly nominated candidate of the Democratic Party in that election for at least two (2) years prior to their election or appointment to the County Committee.

Section 2. Removal of Members or Officers

- A. In the event that a member of the County Committee is convicted or pleads guilty to a criminal felony, the Chairperson of the County Committee shall immediately declare their position vacant. Any person convicted or pleading guilty to a felony will be ineligible to serve on the County Committee until their criminal sentence has concluded in its entirety, including probation and parole. Upon conclusion of his or her sentence, the previously barred member would be eligible to run for County Committee membership at the next duly authorized nominating primary election.

B. In the event that a member or officer of the County Committee supports a candidate, other than a registered Democrat (unless the candidate is cross filed), by voice, vote, financial support or otherwise, that individual may be removed from membership in the County Committee following the procedures set forth below.

1. Supports a candidate, other than a registered Democrat, unless the candidate is cross-filed, by voice, vote, financial support or otherwise, or
2. Fails to perform the overall responsibilities and duties of a member of the County Committee as outlined in the Precinct Committeeperson Job Description as set forth in "The Pennsylvania Democratic Party Precinct Committeeperson Handbook & Resource Guide", as adopted March 2006, as they may be amended from time to time by the County Committee.
3. Fails to attend County Committee meetings for three (3) consecutive meetings and/or designate a proxy for three (3) consecutive meetings.

C. Procedure for Removal

1. At least three (3) members must file a complaint with the County Chair or the Vice-Chair in the case of a complaint against the Chair. The complaint filed shall set forth the name, address and precinct of the complainant, the name of the member cited, specifying the alleged improper conduct and shall contain the signatures of at least three (3) members of the County Committee, with a verification which shall state it is subject to the penalties of 18 Pa. C.S.A 4904 relating to unsworn falsification to authorities.
2. The County Chair or Vice Chair shall promptly forward said complaint to the Judiciary Committee and shall inform the Executive Committee that a complaint was received at the next scheduled Executive Committee meeting.
3. The Judiciary Committee shall determine, within thirty (30) days of the filing or receiving of the complaint, if there are sufficient grounds to warrant further proceedings. If the Judiciary Committee determines that no further proceedings will occur it shall promptly notify, in writing, the complainants and the member(s) cited of such action.
4. If the Judiciary Committee decides further proceedings are required as set forth above, the Judiciary Committee shall schedule a hearing within fourteen (14) days and provide at least fifteen (15) days written notice of the hearing to the complainants and the cited party.
5. After the hearing the Judiciary Committee shall deliberate and within thirty (30) days after the hearing, file a report and recommendation with the Executive Committee. The Executive Committee shall review the report and recommendation at their next monthly meeting. The Executive Committee shall notify the membership of the County Committee that the report will be considered at the next County Committee meeting.

- a. The membership will, by majority vote for a committee person, either approve or deny the recommendation of the Judiciary Committee.
 - b. The membership will, by two-thirds (2/3) majority for an officer for dereliction of duties, either approve or deny the recommendation of the Judiciary Committee.
 - c. If the membership, by a 2/3 vote, approves the Judiciary Committee's report to recommend the removal of an officer of his or her membership and right to hold office, that decision shall be effective immediately. Reinstatement shall occur only at the time of a reversal pursuant to No. 6 below.
6. The decision of the membership may be appealed to the State Committee of the Democratic Party in the Commonwealth of Pennsylvania.

Article III

Meetings

Section 1. Reorganization Meetings

The elected members of the County Committee shall meet no later than the third Saturday in June after the Primary Election in which they have been chosen. The first order of business at said meeting shall be the election of officers and six (6) additional Executive Committee members as provided by this Constitution. The incumbent County Chair shall preside at this meeting until his/her successor has been elected and installed. Any other business of the County Committee may be transacted at this meeting.

Section 2. Regular Meetings

Regular meetings of the County Committee shall be held in the months of January (Presidential election year) or February (all other years), the month before the Primary Election, June, August, October and December unless the County Committee designates another month. The County Committee shall have the right to close all or a portion of any meeting to anyone who is not a member of the Committee.

Section 3. Special Meetings

Special meetings may be called at any time by the Chair of the County Committee. The Chair shall be required to call a special meeting within twenty one (21) days of receipt of a written and signed request of at least twenty-five (25) members of the County Committee. Only such matters designated in the purpose of the call shall be taken up at that special meeting. The County Committee shall have the right to close all or a portion of any meeting to anyone who is not a member of the Committee.

Section 4. Quorum

One-fifth (1/5) of the members shall constitute a quorum for the transaction of business at a regular or special meeting.

Section 5. Conduct of Business

All meetings shall be conducted in accordance with Robert's Rules of Order, as most recently amended.

Section 6. Elected Official Participation

- A. Elected officials of Berks County, who are registered Democrats may be invited to attend County Committee meetings. They shall have a voice only at the invitation of the County Committee, but shall have no vote.

Article IV

Organization

Section 1. Organization

The officers of the County Committee shall consist of a County Chairperson and Treasurer, who may or may not be members of the County Committee, a Vice Chairperson, and a Secretary, who must be members of the County Committee. All officers must have been a registered Democrat for at least two (2) years, immediately prior to such election.

Section 2. Nomination

Nominations for officers shall be designated and in the order provided by Section 1 of Article IV of this Constitution. Any member so nominated may decline or withdraw his/her name before ballot is taken.

Section 3. Election of Officers

A. Any individual who has been elected County Committeeperson or State Committee member at the Primary election immediately preceding the reorganization meeting shall be qualified to vote for the election of officers in this organization.

B. Elections of officers shall be by ballot, by qualified elected members of various districts or precincts. Ballots will be collected by region and tallied by the incumbent Regional Coordinators. If the incumbent Regional Coordinator(s) is not present a substitute will be appointed by the County Chairperson. The Regional Coordinators will submit the tally and the ballots to the Election Board organized under Section 4 below. If there are more than two (2) candidates for any office, the one receiving the lowest vote on each ballot shall be dropped successively until one of the nominees shall receive a majority vote of the total membership of those present. If there is no opposition for any office, the candidate may be elected by acclamation. Upon completion of the elections and provided there are not election challenges raised, ballots may be destroyed.

Section 4. Election Board

The election board shall consist of three (3) members appointed by the Chair. The incumbent Regional Coordinators shall be responsible for the certification of each member of the region who is eligible to participate in the election of officers. The result of each ballot shall be computed and the vote announced by the election board.

Section 5. Vacancies of Officers

Vacancies which occur during the term of an officer shall be filled at the next regular or special meeting of the County Committee, provided notice of said election is given in the notice of said meeting.

Section 6. Vacancies of Committeepersons

A. The vacancy of any elected or appointed committeeperson shall be filled by the County Committee for the unexpired term.

B. During the period of time intervening between the primary election, at which the County Committee members are elected, and the re-organization meeting of the County Committee, no vacancies existing in the membership of the County Committee shall be filled.

Section 7. Committeepersons at Large

Eighty (80) committeepersons at large, consisting of forty (40) men and forty (40) women, may be elected by a majority vote of the County Committee at any meeting. Twenty (20) of the committeepersons at large, ten (10) men and ten (10) women, will represent the wards of the City of Reading. Sixty (60) of the committeepersons at large, thirty (30) men and thirty (30) women, will represent the boroughs and townships of Berks County. Committeepersons at large shall be proposed by a committeeperson in the proposed committeepersons at large area to the Executive Committee for its recommendation to the County Committee. No district or precinct can have more than two (2) committeepersons at large. Committeepersons at large shall have the same rights and privileges as other members of the organization. Their term of office will expire at the time of the Primary Election of new Committee persons.

Section 8. Proxies

Any member unable to attend a meeting of the Democratic County Committee may be represented by a proxy. Such proxy must be a legally qualified Democratic elector of the region, as defined herein, in which he or she resides. A proxy form provided by the County Committee for meetings or a self-created form containing the committeepersons name, the ward and precinct, the name of the person who will serve as a proxy, and the date of the meeting at which the proxy will serve will be the methods recognized for proxy attendance. No committeeperson shall appoint a proxy for more than three (3) consecutive meetings. No individual may have more than one (1) vote.

Section 9. Powers and Duties

The powers and duties of the officers and committees elected or appointed shall be as defined by this Constitution.

Section 10. Regional Organization

A. Regions shall be established and approved by the County Committee. The Regions shall be periodically reviewed by the County Committee and are subject to realignment as approved by the County Committee.

B. The Regions shall:

1. Be composed of Committee people and all other interested Democrats from each region.

2. The officers of each region, which must include one Coordinator, shall be elected by the Committeepersons thereof for a four year term to take place within a reasonable time after the regular Committee election.

3. The first meeting of each Region after the reorganization meeting shall be called by the County Chair during the first three (3) months after said meeting. Subsequent meetings may be called by the Regional Coordinator.

4. The duties of the Regions shall be:

a. To educate the members and general public of the programs and goals of the Democratic Party.

b. To assist Democratic candidates in the General Election.

c. To register Voters.
